JOHN PHILLIPS IS DEAD

A HIGHLY HONORED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

Body Will Lie in State and be Buried Sunday With Masonic Honors.
Sketch of His Life.

John Phillips long an honored citizen of Honolulu died at his home at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon of a complication of ailments which had confined him to his bed for five weeks.

The body will be embalmed and tomorrow it will be taken to the Masonic Temple to lie in state until Sunday when the funeral will be held. The interment will be in the Masonic plot in Nuanu Cemetery.

For some days it had been feared that his illness, rheumatic neuralgia complicated with kidney trouble, would prove fatal. It gradually sapped his strength and undermined his vitality. No heart action could be detected after 11:45 o'clock this morning, and death came half an hour later. At his bedside, besides his two children, were Dr. Herbert and the following Masonic brethren, who have been in constant attendance on him during his illness: Norman E. Gedge, Archibald Gillian, A. B. Scrimgeour, Joshua Tucker, T. E. Krouse and J. Walker.

John Phillips was born in Scotland 57 years ago. He emigrated to Canada and later lived for a time in St. Paul, Minn., from whence he went to San Francisco and in 1885 came to Honolulu. He entered at once into the plumbing and tinning business with Andrew Brown who was reared in the same village with him, the firm name being Phillips and Brown. This partnership continued for several years and on Mr. Brown's retirement the business was continued by the deceased until his death.

He became a member of the House of Nobles in 1890 and continued such until the overthrow of the monarchy. In 1890 he was appointed a member of the Council of State by President Dole and was re-appointed in 1893.

He was rich in Masonic honors. Twice he was Master of Hawaiian Lodge and had served Pacific Lodge in the same capacity. He was High Priest in the Royal Arch Chapter and had been an officer in the Commandery.

It has been said of him that he had received all the Masonic honors that could be conferred upon him in the Hawaiian Islands. John Phillips leaves surviving him a son and a daughter. His wife died about three years ago.

In the esteem of his fellow citizens and the affection of his friends no man stood higher than John Phillips.

TO BOX WITH POLICEMEN

TWO CANDIDATES FOR A HARD JOB.

Every Member of the Local Force Must Take Lessons and Exercise in Pugilism.

Last night's boxing contest between Man Denny and Charley Lambert had a side issue that not many of those who witnessed it knew about. The police of Honolulu are to be given instruction in the manly art and Lambert and Denny are both out for the position of official boxing instructor of the police department. It will not be any sin to engage in boxing bouts with about a hundred big men but Lambert thinks he is equal to it and so does Denny and each hoped that a victory last night would add to his chance of getting the appointment.

The fact that they boxed under the critical eye of Deputy Marshal Chillingworth put additional point to this idea. It is intended that every policeman in Honolulu shall learn to use his fists and arms in true prize ring style, so that any unfortunate drunk who is not cowed by the dignity of brass buttons can be suppressed without the aid of a club. The men will not be compelled by direct orders to take the lessons, but an instructor for them will be employed and those who fail to mix up with him at the proper intervals are likely to fall under official disfavor. They will not be so strong or active as the other men and are likely to be superseded by men who have due knowledge of ring and saw dust tactics.

Marshal Brown intends to make the police of Honolulu a model body in physique and strength and there is to be no steady increase in girth among them such distinguishes the keepers of the peace in most American cities. Lambert is a bicycle patrolman and has been favorably considered for the place of instructor. He is a large athletic young man and has a good deal of boxing skill. Denny is the Oceanic club's instructor. He is a ring man of a good deal of repute and is said to be the cleverest boxer on the islands.

FINED $500.

J. C. Cohen was found guilty in Police Court this morning of smuggling, upon a charge preferred by the Government some months ago, and fined $500. Appeal will be taken to the Circuit Court and a jury. Humphreys & Hankey appeared for defendant; Marshal Brown prosecuted the case.

Some time ago Mr. Cohen entered 800 pounds of coffee at the Custom House, the duty on which was seven cents a pound. It developed that there were really 3000 pounds in the lot. Mr. Cohen claimed that a mistake in the invoice had been made by the shipper.

WANTS RAILROAD LAND.

This afternoon Mrs. Jane A. Paty entered a claim in abstract against the Oahu Railway Company and thirty-four others to recover a valuable piece of land at Waiwala claimed by the plaintiff. The papers went down on the train this afternoon for service.

NOT THE WISEST WAY.

It is not always best to wait until it is needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before a dose can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

The Smallest Steamship in Use for Carrying Soldiers Across the Pacific to Manila.

The transport Charles Nelson arrived this afternoon from San Francisco, with the rest of the Thirty-second Infantry, most of which is on the Gloucester. The Nelson is a wooden steam schooner of only about 500 tons and very much like the island steamer Mauna Loa. She was nine days on the journey, leaving on the same day as the Gloucester, October 1st. She is the smallest of the transports and the men on board had a good shaking up during the journey. Nearly all were seasick. The Nelson is at Irmgard wharf.

There are 210 enlisted men on the Charles Nelson, including a detachment of the hospital corps. They are under Major Charles E. Cabell of the Thirty-second Volunteers, and First Lieutenant Russell C. Edwards and Warren Dull are on board as civilian clerks.

McBRYDE ARTESIAN WELLS.

Two Bored and Pumping Plant to be Ordered.

In one of the windows of the Pacific Hardware Company a picture is displayed of the second artesian well bored for the McBryde plantation, by L. E. Pinkham. It is located in Hanapepe gulch. The well is 255 feet deep and has a flow of 1,400,000 gallons every twenty-four hours. The photograph shows with what force and volume the water flows.

The first well bored for McBryde flowed 1,750,000 gallons. A third well will be completed this week. The company is so well pleased with the water supply that it is preparing to have another pumping station further up the valley, to have a capacity of 12,000,000 gallons a day.

The water in the well just completed shows only ten grains of salt to the gallon, under Maxwell's test. This is practically pure water.

COMPETITIVE DRILL.

It has been definitely settled that the competitive drill of the companies of the First regiment, N. G. H., will take place on the evening of November 7. The sum of $100 will be given as a first prize and $50 for second place. Besides, Mrs. Dole will present a new flag to the winner of the first prize. The companies already certain of entering are A. B. C. F. and G. In all probability H will also try conclusions.

STABBED ON A TRANSPORT

PRIVATE SNAP USED A KNIFE ON A COMRADE.

Quarrel Over a Crap Game—Contradictory Rumors as to the Victim's Injuries—May Be Fatal.

A cutting affray on the transport Sheridan last night almost resulted in the death of Private Retter of Company D, Thirty-third Infantry. Private W. D. Snap of company L is in the guard house on board the vessel as a result of the encounter and Retter is in the hands of the doctor. As is usually the case with such affairs on the transports the officers decline to give any information as to the extent of the injured man's wounds and many sensational rumors are afloat both on the vessel and on shore. Some of Retter's comrades on the vessel declare that he is dying and was reported by those who were on shore last night that he was dead.

The trouble occurred over a game of craps. The men were "shooting" on the lower deck and engaged in an altercation over a throw of the dice. According to the accounts of those on board, Snap suddenly drew his knife and attacked the other man, inflicting several severe flesh wounds and narrowly missing the jugular vein. Private Snap was put in the guard house and Retter's wounds were attended by the army surgeon.

MRS. NOWLEIN DEAD.

Passed Away Suddenly at Lahaina Sunday Night.

Mrs. Samuel Nowlein died suddenly at Lahaina, Sunday night of heart disease. The news came by the Mauna Loa this morning and was confirmed today. Rev. W. A. Condit conducted the religious services. The remains were interred in the Treadway cemetery.

Mrs. Nowlein's maiden name was Lucy Keakealani. She was a native of Honolulu. Mrs. George E. Smith, of this city, was her only daughter. She was 49 years of age. She was of splendid character and a constant worker in the interest of Hawaiians. Few native women were so well known, particularly on Maui, as Mrs. Nowlein. A report comes by today's steamer that Mr. Nowlein is also quite ill. When the Kinau left Lahaina his condition was regarded as serious.

DENIES AUTHORITY.

In the suit of the Minister of Interior against the Kapioian Estate, to prevent waste on a certain piece of land at Alwalolua, defendants have filed demurrer denying the authority of the plaintiff to interfere. The ground of the demurrer is that only the reversioner can sue to prevent waste; that the reversioner is the United States; and that the Minister of the Interior is not the representative of the United States.

WM. R. SIMS ILL.

Wm. R. Sims is quite ill at his home in Kalihi. On Sunday, during the funeral of his late wife, he sustained a considerable rupture of a blood vessel. Since that time he has been confined to his bed. This afternoon Mr. Sims is reported to be better but still in a rather bad way.

The marriage of Miss Myrie H. Rowen and George P. Bulen took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wall, Kinau and Pensacola streets.

The bridesmaid, her sister Miss Charlotte Rowen, wore white organdie over silk. The groom was accompanied by his best man J. P. Hayward. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William A. Gardner of the Christian church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. A. Rowen, and a very popular young woman. The groom, is an electrical engineer for a number of years at the head of one of the big fire alarm companies of New York. PICTURES OF BATTLES

A NEW THING IN THE HISTORY OF WARFARE.

A Mutoscope Man Going to the Front on the Transport Sheridan to Take Views of Fighting.

C. Fred Ackerman is a civilian passenger on the transport Sheridan going to Manila to get kinetoscope pictures of battle scenes. Ackerman's plan is something that has never been attempted before in the history of the world. He proposes to take his mutoscope to the front and secure a moving picture record of an engagement. While the soldiers are firing and loading and dodging bullets Ackerman will have to stand calmly by turning a crank. If no bullet strikes him or the wonderful machine he is taking to the front he will secure a series of pictures that will be of immense value. By their use an audience may sit in a theatre in any part of the world and witness a faithful reproduction, with every detail of heroism and excitement and tragedy of a battle between Americans and Filipinos in Luzon.

The young man with the mutoscope is undertaking his perilous enterprise as the agent of the American Mutoscope & Biograph Company. He has been a newspaperman for several years, and is well fitted for the arduous and dangerous task he has in prospect. The machine with which he will work is the one with which two regiments of infantry were taken yesterday at the Executive Building. It weighs 500 pounds, and cost, with its fixtures about $5,000. It takes from thirty to forty photographs per second on a film 25 feet in length. The value of the work proposed to be done is such that the Secretary of War granted Mr. Ackerman permission to travel on the Sheridan and be with the army at the front.

Of course, it is a risky proposition," said Mr. Ackerman, "but my newspaper training will serve me well as to that, and I shall be ready to go anywhere to get what I am after. I am after a moving picture of a battle, and if I don't get one it will be either because there is no battle or because a bullet stops me."

The films of the battle pictures, if Ackerman gets them, will be sent to New York at once and within a few weeks the American public will have a chance to sit in comfortable plush covered theatre seats and enjoy a reproduction, with no feature absent but the noise of a battle in the Philippines. After doing his work in the latter islands Mr. Ackerman will take his big mutoscope—one of the largest ever made—through the Orient.
